Splashing out

STATE Swim pools in Norwood and Unley will offer free weekly swimming lessons to 40 disadvantaged children under a sponsorship program with The Smith Family.

The $200,000 program will see the children aged five to 12 from the Port Adelaide/Enfield area given a weekly swimming lesson for the next year, as well as goggles and a swimming cap.

State Swim managing director Paul Mason said every child should learn to swim regardless of a family's financial situation.
